Now Seeking Three Individuals to Serve as the 2017 Leadership and Professional Development Conference Chair, External/Internal Relations Chair, and Program and Logistics Chair

Eligibility

Graduate or Undergraduate Students who will be able to

- Attend and serve as a volunteer at Missouri S&T 2014 Student Leadership Conference which will be held Saturday, February 1
- Be on campus during the Fall 2016 to hold weekly planning meetings
- Not scheduled to graduate until May 2017

All students must have a 2.25 cumulative grade point average.

You must be willing to attend a National Collegiate Leadership Conference. The entire cost of the conference will be covered minus a few meals.)

Benefits

You’ll be provided with opportunities to

- Build your resume
- Network with S&T employers, University System student leaders, and staff.
- Engage and learn from leaders from across the nation through attending a conference.
- Apply your current leadership skills
- Increase your ability to manage people and budgets
- Increase your leadership ability, public speaking skills, interpersonal communication skills
- Earn a $150 bookstore gift certificate that will be awarded in January 2017

Application Guidelines

Submit your cover letter and a resume expressing and complete the online application by December 14 at 4:30 PM to Jerri Arnold-Cook at arnoldcookj@mst.edu. Interviews will be conducted at the beginning of the spring 2016 semester.