"Sue Shear gave me the opportunity to enhance my leadership skills and encouraged my goals of becoming a female leader within the environmental engineering field."

Elise Kittrell

S&T 2012 Sue Shear Fellow

"The Sue Shear Institute provides resources I've never heard of anywhere else - role models, feedback from experts, and a supportive community, all enthusiastic to help you pursue public life and to appreciate your help in return. I recommend it to anyone interested in public life."

Heidi Soderstrom

"Sue Shear is truly a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for anyone looking to broaden their horizons and hone their professional skills. Sue Shear has inspired me to go beyond what I had imagined for myself. I made some of my best friends at Sue Shear who constantly challenge and inspire me."

Rebecca Holmes

S&T 2012 Sue Shear Intern

S&T 2011 Sue Shear Fellow

Programs of the Sue Shear Institute are open to participants regardless of race, gender, ethnicity, relational origin, religion, or political affiliation
